

Epiphany Dinner and Dance Party Invitation

Celebrating the Light with Good Food, Great Company, and Joyful (and Funky) Dancing! A good Polka, Waltz, Twist and Shagging!

Join us for the Epiphany Dinner and Dance Party to celebrate the season with great food, music, and dancing.

About the Event

The Epiphany, long celebrated as the twelfth day after Christmas, marks a time of revelation, joy, and gathering with friends and family. Join us as we honor this cherished tradition, reflecting on the journey of the Magi and the shining moment of wonder that brings us together. As the winter nights linger, let us warm our spirits with community and laughter, embracing the light that Epiphany represents.

Why Attend?

The Epiphany Dinner and Dance Party is more than an event—it's a celebration of light, hope, and the bonds that connect us. Whether you are rekindling old friendships or forging new ones, you'll find warmth at every table and laughter on the dance floor. The night promises:

- Exquisite food and fine company
- Joyful traditions and a touch of magic
- Music that moves the soul
- A chance to celebrate new beginnings together

Tradition Meets Festivity

Epiphany is the perfect time to gather, reflect, and rejoice. Our celebration honors the legacy of the Magi's journey and the spirit of discovery that lives in us all. Let your heart be light as you dance under twinkling lights and join in time-honored festivities.

A Toast to the Future

Raise your glass with us as we welcome the joys and challenges of the coming year. With every step, every smile, and every note of music, we celebrate not just the history of Epiphany, but the promise of days to come.

We Look Forward to Celebrating With You

Gather your loved ones, don your finest attire, and prepare for an evening of enchantment at our Epiphany Dinner and Dance Party. It will be a night of laughter, discovery, and lasting memories. Your presence will make the night truly special.
